

ADVOCACY RESOURCES FOR CITIZENS

1. North Carolina General Assembly Website: www.ncleg.net.

(Legislative Building located at 16 W. Jones Street, Raleigh, NC)

- Look up your House and Senate members
- Find out about committee meetings, session times, and general General Assembly schedules
- Look up bills and bill status

Key NC General Assembly Phone Numbers:

Switchboard (connect to any legislators office): 733-4111

Senate Principal Clerk: 733-7761

House Principal Clerk: 733-7760

Legislative Library: 733-7779

2. NC Policywatch: www.ncpolicywatch.com.

Keep up with daily news stories, commentary, and legislative progress at this progressive website.

3. News & Observer “Under the Dome” column & blog

Read Raleigh’s capitol newspaper regularly and check online for their frequent updates to their local politics blog:

<http://projects.newsobserver.com/dome>.

4. WUNC’s “Isaac Hunter’s Tavern” blog

Read WUNC Radio’s Laura Leslie comment daily on all things Tarheel politics. She provides frequent updates when the General Assembly is in session: <http://wunc.org/programs/news/Isaac-Hunters-Tavern>.

5. Sign up to receive NC Women United’s Alerts

Keep up with legislative action on women’s priorities by subscribing to NCWU’s email alerts: <http://ncwu.org/alerts/index.htm>.